

Follow the route on your map, stopping at each of the places marked and answer the questions below.

1. On the gates there is a red head - is this Pan the Roman god of flocks and shepherds or Bacchus the god of wine?

What word meaning 'excessive fear' comes from Pan's name?

2. Inside the Banqueting House is a portrait of the Sultan of Surat riding what?

The Banqueting House has 3 faces carved on the outside – are they Splendour, Abundance and Jollity or Hatred, Malice and Envy?

3. The head of which animal is carved on the freize on the Temple of Piety?

Why is the pond in front of the Temple of Piety called the Moon Pond?

Who is the statue of in the middle of the Moon Pond?

4. How long is the Serpentine Tunnel?

5. Does the Octagon Tower have the correct number of sides?

6. The Temple of Fame is an architectural deceit – what is not as it seems?

7. At Anne Boleyn's Seat – what is William Aislabbie's surprise view?

8. How many arched entrances to toilet cubicles are there in the lay-brothers' reredorter?

The monks were given 'drawers' to wear on a journey – what were the 'drawers'?

9. How many pillars are there in the CELLARIUM.

10. Find the Industrial Buildings – what can you find that shows that water was used here?

How was the round stone structure used to heat water?

What was hot water needed for here?

11. Stand on Mill Bridge looking upstream. Where does the water on the left come from?

Look downstream – what evidence can you see that the river didn't always follow its present path?

Look at the bridge downstream – which part was built later and why was it added?

Look at the guest houses downstream – why did they have water running under the corner rooms?

12. Stand on the path and look at the outside of Fountains Hall. At first sight it looks symmetrical – find 4 ways in which the left and right sides differ.

On either side of the sundial on Fountains Hall is a statue – one is Saturn the Roman god of agriculture and sowing, the other is Mars the Roman god of war. Which one is Mars?

Which day and which month are named after these 2 gods?

What are the initials of the man who built Fountains Hall? You can find them above the doorway.

Find and complete the date – 17_ _

Go up the bottom steps and look at the Vyner memorial glass. Write the names of the 2 young people. 1) 2)

Where did they die? 1)
2)

Go up the steps – who unveiled the memorial?

Inside – where can you find horses' heads?

Name 1 fruit in the carving over the fireplace.

What was the gallery over the end of the hall for?